

QUALITY POLICY

I. & E. PAPALEXIS P.C.

The company "I. & E. PAPALEXIS P.C." has set as its dominant goal the continuous improvement of Quality through which it also satisfies every other business goal.

The result of this effort is observed and judged by the degree of satisfaction of its customers, its partners, its staff and the other legal and regulatory authorities that govern the company's activity.

The company monitors the technological developments in its field of activity, while with its experienced staff it applies methods and techniques to solve every technical problem in the best way, with the direct aim of the total satisfaction of its customers.

The main driver of the activities of the company "I. & E. PAPALEXIS P.C." is the Quality of the Products it produces and the Services it provides, the maximum degree of satisfaction of its customers, as well as continuous improvement.

The company is committed to the satisfaction of the applicable requirements and to the observance of the existing Legislation concerning its field of activity, as well as to the continuous improvement of the Quality Management System.

The implementation of the Quality Management System is universal and conscious by all members of the company, since everyone follows what is mentioned in it and makes sure that the improvement of Quality as well as the ever-increasing satisfaction of customers and other interested parties is the determining factor when making decisions.

For "I. & E. PAPALEXIS P.C."

Papalexis Emmanouil